

BGBVLUCAS COUNTY JR. FAIR

LIVESTOCK EXHIBITOR INFO.

JUNE 2020

Due to the current pandemic, the livestock committee and auction committee have worked diligently to make the Jr. Fair livestock shows and auction go on as smoothly and safely as possible. Please review all of the changes prior to the start of fair.

- Weigh-in and Tagging - Sunday, July 12th 8:00-4:00
  - Unload animals and take straight to scale if possible.
  - All animals must be on the grounds and across the scale before 4:00.
  - Rabbits & Poultry – change to weigh-in card: may be marked as dressed and delivered
- There will be no barn meeting. Make sure to check the green board in the barn for all important announcements.
- Skill-a-thon and shows will remain at the originally scheduled dates and times.
- There will be no buddy classes for any livestock departments.
- All exhibited animals may be removed from the grounds beginning at 8:00 pm Tuesday, July 14th; animal removal must be between 6-8 am or 8-11 pm on any given day. You must check out with each department head prior to leaving the fairgrounds with any livestock.
- Any swine that is not being sold to the market truck must be off the grounds by 8:00 am Wednesday, July 15th
- Pens must be cleaned out by the exhibitor following the removal of animals.
- Livestock Auction
  - Rabbit/Poultry (Dressed and Delivered) – if you have marked your market animals as dressed and delivered, exhibitor (parent) contact information will be provided to interested buyers.
  - No animals in the sale ring.
  - Outstanding Exhibitors, Grand Champions, and Reserve Champions will be the only sale items, including gardening champions.
  - All other exhibitors will go through the auction once no matter the number of animals.
  - Sale order following the champions will be generated randomly.
  - Posters displaying livestock projects are recommended for the sale ring to exhibit the livestock raised.
  - If you have any questions, please visit Abby in the auction trailer office during posted hours.
- There will be no awards dinner on the final Sunday of fair.
- Buyer thank you lists will be mailed out following the auction when the majority of add-ons have been received. Make sure that thank you notes are completed and mailed by the end of August.
